1. CUSTOMER SEGMENT(S) [CS] Aspiring comic creators, writers, hobbyists, students, and teachers who want to turn story ideas into comics without drawing skills.	6. CUSTOMER LIMITATIONS [CL] Limited drawing skills, time, and design tools; varying device performance; hard to keep characters and style consistent across panels.	5. AVAILABLE SOLUTIONS PROS & CONS [AS] Manual drawing, comic apps, templates, general AI. Pros: full control, many tools. Cons: slow, skill-heavy, inconsistent panels.
2. PROBLEMS / PAINS + ITS FREQUENCY [PR] Writer's block, hard to plan panels and dialogue, time-consuming art, inconsistent characters; frequent with every new story idea.	9. PROBLEM ROOT / CAUSE [RC] Comics need writing, layout, and art skills at once; scattered tools; no single guided workflow from story idea to finished comic.	7. BEHAVIOR + ITS INTENSITY [BE] Sketching, hunting for references, trying many apps, rewriting scripts; most intense near project, contest, or class deadlines.
3. TRIGGERS TO ACT [TR] A new story idea, writer's block, class or contest project, wanting to share a visual story, needing panel-by-panel guidance.	10. YOUR SOLUTION [SL] ComicCraft: Gemini-powered creator that turns a story idea into a comic: plot, characters, panel scripts, and dialogue.	8. CHANNELS OF BEHAVIOR [CH] ONLINE: web interface and Gemini AI workflow. OFFLINE: brainstorming, sketching, storyboarding, and notes.

4. EMOTIONS BEFORE / AFTER [EM]
BEFORE: stuck, frustrated, uncertain when ideas are hard to turn into panels or drawing skills are lacking.
AFTER: inspired, confident, creative, and motivated after seeing their story take shape as a comic.
